REEL-TO-REEL PROJECT

A CATALOGUE OF KOPN'S REEL-TO-REEL
TAPE COLLECTION OF PROGRAMS FROM
THE 1970'S TO THE 1990'S

This project is funded by the state of Missouri, the State Documents Preservation Fund, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission and is supported by the Missouri State Archives, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State. Other funders include the City of Columbia Office of Cultural Affairs, the National Organization of Women, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Hearthfires, the UMC's Women's and Gender Studies Department, UMC's Black Studies Program, UMC's Peace Studies Program, the Missouri State Historical Society, and numerous private donors.

INTRODUCTION

KOPN-FM COMMUNITY RADIO

KOPN-FM is a non-profit listener supported community radio station founded in 1973. For over thirty years the station has provided a wide variety of programming, both entertaining and educational to Columbia and surrounding areas. Our signal covers a fifty-mile radius surrounding Columbia from our broadcasting studios located at 915 E. Broadway. Volunteers from the community produce all of our local shows and in keeping with our open-access philosophy, we provide radio broadcast and production training to interested community members. KOPN's mission is to educate and enrich the lives of our membership and the community it serves, especially those underrepresented by the commercial media sector. We have a proud history of airing diverse programs and innovative topics, both on a local and national level.

REEL-TO-REEL REFORMATTING PROJECT

Through the 1970s and into the early 1990s, KOPN used a standard radio format of reel-to-reel tape to record and air all of our radio programs. We now use digital equipment and the programs on reel-to-reel tape can no longer be aired. To complicate matters, reel-to-reel tape has a limited life-span and 30 years is toward the upper limit of that life-span. We began to realize when we celebrated our thirty-year anniversary that we needed to begin to preserve our history. The taped programs needed to be restored and reformatted onto CD, which would allow us to preserve them and to actually re-broadcast them. We applied for the Missouri Historical Records Grant Program available through the State of Missouri and were awarded $7,888 to begin this preservation process for three of our collections: Local History, Native-American Issues and African-American Issues. Within this catalog you will find many historical treasures, and some topics that are still relevant issues today. There are many panel discussions on farming, land resource and development issues. We have recordings of live events such as the Dr. Martin Luther King Celebration in 1982 and interviews with members of the American Indian Movement concerning the Black Hills Struggle. In these collections you will also find some "firsts": two programs by Jason Watts, KOPN's very own, who was the youngest D.J. in the country, and a wacky live recording of the opening of the Ice Chalet with our intrepid reporters interviewing managers and local celebs ice-skating. We also have several interesting series that were produced at KOPN. However, you may note that we are missing some of the programs from these series. As a testimony to the need for preservation, some tapes had been destroyed, thrown away or lost over the years. We felt it important to preserve the tapes we have found.

These reformatted CDs are now accessible to the general public in several venues—on site at the KOPN studios and at the Western Historical Manuscript Collection, University of Missouri. They can also be accessed by patrons of the Mexico-Audrain County Library. The catalogs are available at all area libraries.

This project could not have been possible without the amazing and Herculean efforts of three volunteers: Cyndie, Jennifer, and Sarah Kimball. They have now inventoried 3,000 reel-to-reel tapes from the KOPN library. A big thanks is in order for their tireless dedication. Our production work was completed by Jim Stephens of Deep Sky Audio, whose sense of humor and professionalism made this project a resounding success. Janet Hammen provided invaluable budget assistance. Diane Rodgers served as project director and Jim Baden meticulously wrote program descriptions and produced portions of this fine catalog. We also appreciate any help from KOPN staff and volunteers that have contributed in any way to this project. The initial project was funded by the State of Missouri, the State Documents Preservation Fund, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, and is supported by the Missouri State Archives, a division of the Office of Secretary of State.

Following the first successful grant project, the Reel-to-Reel Project has continued to pursue and secure funding to reformat these valuable historical documents. This catalog now includes programs that were reformatted with donations from the City of Columbia Office of Cultural Affairs, the University of Missouri – Columbia Black Studies Program, the University of Missouri – Columbia Women’s and Gender Studies Department, the University of Missouri – Columbia Peace Studies Program, Diane Rodgers, the Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom, Columbia Area National Organization of Women Chapter, Missouri National Organization of Women Chapter, Hearthfires, the State Historical Society of Missouri, and numerous individuals. Since summer 2006 Jennifer Kimball has served as project director and Diane Rodgers as project consultant. Cyndie Kimball has continued to help with numerous project areas and with cataloging; Joy rushing has helped with post production work; Jim Stephens of Deep Sky Audio continues to do production work for the project.
